

Botany subject studying plants

textile regarding knitting clothes

explosives bomb

hemp one class of plant

exceptionally out of normality moored equivalent to car parking

zinc

due

I ended up not getting in until one o'clock in the morning

Anyway, I'll do my best to have them finished by the next time we meet.

If you wanna tie your anchor to it and drop it right into the ocean, that's no problem

Theory not fairy

What are you taking?

I'm gonna help teach a writing class of the junior high.

But I have to quit my job a couple of weeks

Well, it's only from 7 to 9.

A lot of them go, sometimes even the professor.

I don't know if I would want to read in front of her.

but it's a good environment to read them

I gotta go now, my Shakespeare class starts in twenty minutes.

Attainment achievement, gain

Contem'plation thinking deeply do other things I want to do

So health is important to me—has value to me—as a means to a productive life

Aristotle says that true happiness is the exercise of reason—a life of intellectual contemplation of thinking. So let's see how he comes to that.

Complete in that it's all we require

Mercury

Venus

Saturn ['sætɜːrn]

Uranus

Astronomical

*Tantalizingly In a way that makes you feel excited and hope that you might get or do something, especially when this does not in fact happen

Validity the quality of being based on truth or reason,

Faint not strong or clear

Telescopes

but there was sn't anything obvious there

Ceres was the first and is the largest of what became many objects discovered at that same distance.

Bulletin a board on a wall on which notices can be put:

sent out to produce something in a way that causes it to spread out from a central point

sign up for 报名

go through If a law, plan, or deal goes through, it is officially accepted or approved:

right way immediately

Yeah, I know, but my class isn't listed there.

You should have got note (弱读) letter from the registrar's office about this.

it says here we sent it to your apartment on er... Center Street.

I suppose you haven't changed your (to your) mailing address at the administration office

I would have taken it last semester.

they might even do it with less.

why don't you to (弱读) go change a mail address now back and forth moving first in one direction and then in the opposite one:

nectar a sweet liquid produced by flowers and collected by bees and other insects:

pollinated to take pollen from one plant or part of a plant to another so that new plant seeds can be produced:

lightweight weighing only a little or less than average record (pronunciation)

she was one of the oldest humming birds on record (pronunciation).

Well, the humming bird beats its wings (听起来像 twins) – get this.

You can't say it isn't.

In fact, most of what we know about humming birds comes from banding studies, some humming birds have worn them for years with no evidence of any problems.

conform to to behave according to the usual standards of behaviour that are expected by a group or society:

neatly in a tidy way:

aquatic /ə'kwæt.ɪk/ living or growing in, happening in, or connected with water:

mollusk /'mɒl.əsk/ any animal that has a soft body, no spine, and is often covered with a shell. Many mollusks live in water:

uncanny strange or mysterious, often in a way that is slightly frightening:

Painlevé's films conform to norms of the 20s and 30s

Painlevé was s known for(not no for) saying that science is fiction.

You know, to make it look like the mollusk were dancing to the music like a human being – that sort of thing.

Weren't there other people making movies underwater?

so you are right in that at sense(not accent).

Barn a large building on a farm in which animals or hay (= dried grass) and grain are kept

Erected to build a building, wall, or other structure:

Artifacts an object, such as a tool, that was made in the past:

pottery /'pɒt.ə.ri/ the activity or skill of making clay objects by hand

I assume that most students taking the introductory level of class would have (wouddav) little or no experience with the archeological

research

We are (woer) excavating near the lecture hall to see what types of artifacts we find

I woulddn't expect volunteers to travel to a site, especially in the middle of the semester

I've asked for volunteers in all of the classes I teach, but no one has responded.

Chauvet /chaovit/ one cave

Primitive relating to human society at a very early stage of development, with people living in a simple way without machines or a writing system:

piped up to suddenly start to speak or make a noise:

Altamira [alta'mɪrə] another cave

Lascaux /Lasac/

be that as it may used to mean that you accept that a piece of information is true but it does not change your opinion of the subject you are discussing:

Paleolithic /ˌpeɪ.li.ouˈlɪθ.ɪk/ relating to the period when humans used tools and weapons made of stone:

Drew pronunciation

charcoal marks a hard, black substance similar to coal that can be used as fuel or, in the form of sticks, as something to draw with:

vitality energy and strength:

herbivores /ˈhɜː.bə.vɔːr/ an animal that eats only plants:

bison a large wild animal, similar to a cow but having a larger head and shoulders covered in hair, found in North America and Europe.

rhinoceros /raɪˈnɒː.sə.əs/sheer used to emphasize how very great, important, or powerful a quality or feeling is;

dim the lights,

You would have had to make a special trip into the cave to make the paintings

Bloom to grow or develop successfully:

Spectroscopy the study of the way matter absorbs or sends out light and other radiation (= energy from light or heat that you cannot see) :

Prisma transparent glass or plastic object that separates white light that pass es through it into different colours:

pass a beam a line of light that shines from a bright object:

falls in 落入

take a stab try to do

radiation a form of energy that comes from a nuclear reaction and that can be very dangerous to health:

Uranium a chemical element that is a heavy, radioactive metal, used in the production of nuclear power and in some types of nuclear weapon bleed If colour, ink, paint, etc. bleeds, it spreads beyond the edges of something onto an area that is another colour:

compiled to collect information from different places and arrange it in a book, report, or list:

radiates to produce heat and/or light, or (of heat or light) to be produced:

fingerprint a mark left by dirt or oil from someone's finger on a clean surface

Helius

But radiation as a general term actually refers to anything that spreads away from its source

Critiques a report of something such as a political situation or system, or a person's work or ideas, that examines it and provides a judgment, especially a negative one:

tore past simple of tear premiered the first public performance of a play or any other type of entertainment:

it was anything but boring

But they have to be from when the play was first performed, so I need to know when that was and I suppose I should start with newspaper reviews...

It was written in 1962 and we are supposed to write about its influence on American theatre and show why it's been so important. Is that a big deal?

Oh, sure, of course the critics' reaction made some people kind of curious about it.

my parents took me to see it
That would d've been about 1965.

But,uh, newspapers from back then aren't online, so, how do I...

But I start with 1964, I think the play had been running for a little while when I saw it.

Yeah, I've only read it but it doesn't seem like it would be much fun to watch.

The story doesn't progress in any sort of logical matter, doesn't have real ending either, just stops

Well, there must be something about it, or the professor would h've assigned it preens If a bird preens or preens itself, it cleans and arranges its feathers using its beak.

ritual a way of doing something in which the same actions are done in the same way every time:

grooming the things that you do to make your appearance clean and neat

Disinhibition 抑制

surfaces If a feeling or information surfaces, it becomes known:

hold back to not do something, often because of fear or because you do not want to make a bad situation worse:

stimulus something that causes growth or activity:

ruffled upset:

wood thrush 画眉鸟

beak the hard, pointed part of a bird's mouth:

perch to be in a high position or in a position near the edge of something, or to put something in this position

You may have seen, for example, a bird that's in the middle of a mating ritual, and suddenly it stops and preens, you know, takes a few moments to straighten its feathers, and then returns to the mating ritual.

Or, well, they're getting in a way of each other

Conviction a strong opinion or belief:

in touch with seeing someone or communicating with someone regularly:

non-conformist 不顺从一般公认信念习惯的人，不墨守成规者

He really drives this argument home throughout the essay.

他在整篇文章中都充分阐述了这一论点

Conforming to behave according to the usual standards of behaviour that are expected by a group or society:

Voyage a long journey, especially by ship:

They try to fit in with the rest of the world even though it's at odds with their beliefs and their identities

Most of us aren't in touch with ourselves in a way, so we just aren't capable of recognizing profound truth.